THE EUROPEAN CHARTER FOR REGIONAL OR MINORITY LANGUAGES¹

– Applied to Bosnian in Serbia –

PART II

OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES PURSUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 2, PARAGRAPH 1

Article 7 – Objectives and principles

- 1 In respect of Bosnian, within the territories in which Bosnian is used and according to the situation of Bosnian, Serbia shall base its policies, legislation and practice on the following objectives and principles:
 - a the recognition of Bosnian as an expression of cultural wealth;
 - b the respect of the geographical area of Bosnian in order to ensure that existing or new administrative divisions do not constitute an obstacle to the promotion of Bosnian;
 - c the need for resolute action to promote Bosnian in order to safeguard it;
 - d the facilitation and/or encouragement of the use of Bosnian, in speech and writing, in public and private life;
 - e the maintenance and development of links, in the fields covered by this Charter, between groups using Bosnian and other groups in the State employing a language used in identical or similar form, as well as the establishment of cultural relations with other groups in the State using different languages;
 - f the provision of appropriate forms and means for the teaching and study of Bosnian at all appropriate stages;
 - g the provision of facilities enabling non-speakers of Bosnian living in the area where it is used to learn it if they so desire;
 - h the promotion of study and research on Bosnian at universities or equivalent institutions;
 - i the promotion of appropriate types of transnational exchanges, in the fields covered by this Charter, for Bosnian used in identical or similar form in two or more States.
- 2 Serbia undertakes to eliminate, if it has not yet done so, any unjustified distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference relating to the use of Bosnian and intended to discourage or endanger the maintenance or development of it. The adoption of special measures in favour of Bosnian aimed at promoting equality between the users of Bosnian and the rest of the population or which take due account of their specific conditions is not considered to be an act of discrimination against the users of more widely-used languages.
- 3 Serbia undertakes to promote, by appropriate measures, mutual understanding between all the linguistic groups of the country and in particular the inclusion of respect, understanding and tolerance in relation to Bosnian among the objectives of education and training provided within the country and encouragement of the mass media to pursue the same objective.
- 4 In determining its policy with regard to Bosnian, Serbia shall take into consideration the needs and wishes expressed by the groups which use Bosnian. It is encouraged to establish bodies, if necessary, for the purpose of advising the authorities on all matters pertaining to Bosnian.

 - h to provide the basic and further training of the teachers required to implement those of paragraphs a to g accepted by Serbia;
 - i to set up a supervisory body or bodies responsible for monitoring the measures taken and progress achieved in establishing or developing the teaching of Bosnian and for drawing up periodic reports of their findings, which will be made public.
- 2 With regard to education and in respect of territories other than those in which Bosnian is traditionally used, Serbia undertakes, if the number of users of Bosnian justifies it, to allow, encourage or provide teaching in or of Bosnian at all the appropriate stages of education.

Article 9 – Judicial authorities

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 Serbia undertakes, in respect of those judicial districts in which the number of residents using Bosnian justifies the measures specified below, according to the situation of Bosnian and on condition that the use of the facilities afforded by the present paragraph is not considered by the judge to hamper the proper administration of justice:
 - a in criminal proceedings:
 - ii to guarantee the accused the right to use Bosnian; and/or
 - iii to provide that requests and evidence, whether written or oral, shall not be considered inadmissible solely because they are formulated in Bosnian; and/orif necessary by the use of interpreters and translations involving no extra expense for the persons concerned;
 - b in civil proceedings:
 - ii to allow, whenever a litigant has to appear in person before a court, that he or she may use Bosnian without thereby incurring additional expense; and/orif necessary by the use of interpreters and translations;
 - c in proceedings before courts concerning administrative matters:
 - ii to allow, whenever a litigant has to appear in person before a court, that he or she may use Bosnian without thereby incurring additional expense; and/orif necessary by the use of interpreters and translations;
 - d to take steps to ensure that the application of sub-paragraphs i and iii of paragraphs b and c above and any necessary use of interpreters and translations does not involve extra expense for the persons concerned.
- 2 Serbia undertakes:
 - a not to deny the validity of legal documents drawn up within the State solely because they are drafted in Bosnian; or

- a i to provide that the courts, at the request of one of the parties, shall conduct the proceedings in Bosnian; and/or
- iv to produce, on request, documents connected with legal proceedings in Bosnian,
- b i to provide that the courts, at the request of one of the parties, shall conduct the proceedings in Bosnian; and/or
- iii to allow documents and evidence to be produced in Bosnian,

- f i to cover the additional costs of those media which use Bosnian, wherever the law provides for financial assistance in general for the media; or
- g to support the training of journalists and other staff for media using Bosnian.

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 2 Serbia undertakes to guarantee freedom of direct reception of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in a language used in identical or similar form to Bosnian, and not to oppose the retransmission of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in such a language. It further undertakes to ensure that no restrictions will be placed on the freedom of expression and free circulation of information in the written press in a language used in identical or similar form to Bosnian. The exercise of the above-mentioned freedoms, since it carries with it duties and responsibilities, may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society, in the interests of national security, territorial integrity or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health or morals, for the protection of the reputation or rights of others, for preventing disclosure of information received in confidence, or for maintaining the authority and impartiality of the judiciary.
- 3 Serbia undertakes to ensure that the interests of the users of Bosnian are represented or taken into account within such bodies as may be established in accordance with the law with responsibility for guaranteeing the freedom and pluralism of the media.

Article 12 – Cultural activities and facilities

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to cultural activities and facilities – especially libraries, video libraries, cultural centres, museums, archives, academies, theatres and cinemas, as well as literary work and film production, vernacular forms of cultural expression, festivals and the culture industries, including inter alia the use of new technologies – Serbia undertakes, within the territory in which Bosnian is used and to the extent that the public authorities are competent, have power or play a role in this field:
 - a to encourage types of expression and initiative specific to Bosnian and foster the different means of access to works produced in Bosnian;
 - b to foster the different means of access in other languages to works produced in Bosnian by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;
 - c to foster access in Bosnian to works produced in other languages by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- f to encourage direct participation by representatives of the users of Bosnian in providing facilities and planning cultural activities;

- 2 In respect of territories other than those in which Bosnian is traditionally used, Serbia undertakes, if the number of users of Bosnian justifies it, to allow, encourage and/or provide appropriate cultural activities and facilities in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

- d to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities of various kinds make appropriate allowance for incorporating the knowledge and use of the Bosnian language and culture in the undertakings which they initiate or for which they provide backing;
 - e to promote measures to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities have at their disposal staff who have a full command of Bosnian, as well as of the language(s) of the rest of the population;

 - g to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of a body or bodies responsible for collecting, keeping a copy of and presenting or publishing works produced in Bosnian;
 - h if necessary, to create and/or promote and finance translation and terminological research services, particularly with a view to maintaining and developing appropriate administrative, commercial, economic, social, technical or legal terminology in Bosnian.
- 3 Serbia undertakes to make appropriate provision, in pursuing its cultural policy abroad, for Bosnian and the culture it reflects.

Article 13 – Economic and social life

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to economic and social activities, Serbia undertakes, within the whole country:
 - c to oppose practices designed to discourage the use of Bosnian in connection with economic or social activities;

- a to eliminate from its legislation any provision prohibiting or limiting without justifiable reasons the use of Bosnian in documents relating to economic or social life, particularly contracts of employment, and in technical documents such as instructions for the use of products or installations;
- b to prohibit the insertion in internal regulations of companies and private documents of any clauses excluding or restricting the use of Bosnian, at least between users of Bosnian;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- d to facilitate and/or encourage the use of Bosnian by means other than those specified in the above sub-paragraphs.
- 2 With regard to economic and social activities, Serbia undertakes, in so far as the public authorities are competent, within the territory in which Bosnian is used, and as far as this is reasonably possible:
 - a to include in its financial and banking regulations provisions which allow, by means of procedures compatible with commercial practice, the use of Bosnian in drawing up payment orders (cheques, drafts, etc.) or other financial documents, or, where appropriate, to ensure the implementation of such provisions;
 - b in the economic and social sectors directly under its control (public sector), to organise activities to promote the use of Bosnian;
 - c to ensure that social care facilities such as hospitals, retirement homes and hostels offer the possibility of receiving and treating in Bosnian persons using Bosnian who are in need of care on grounds of ill-health, old age or for other reasons;
 - d to ensure by appropriate means that safety instructions are also drawn up in Bosnian;
 - e to arrange for information provided by the competent public authorities concerning the rights of consumers to be made available in Bosnian.

Article 14 – Transfrontier exchanges

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

Serbia undertakes:

- a to apply existing bilateral and multilateral agreements which bind them with the States in which Bosnian is used in identical or similar form, or if necessary to seek to conclude such agreements, in such a way as to foster contacts between the users of Bosnian in the States concerned in the fields of culture, education, information, vocational training and permanent education;
- b for the benefit of Bosnian, to facilitate and/or promote co-operation across borders, in particular between regional or local authorities in whose territory Bosnian is used in identical or similar form.
